my shoes are simple,
brown and sensible.
i got them to keep my feet warm.
my shoes are rugged
so they last longer

your shoes have platforms
and stacked heels.
they are red
and made to be seen.
they don't have to
last a long time
because they'll go out of style
before too long.

i like my shoes
because they're practical
and i don't have to worry about them.
but i like your shoes, too,
because they're beautiful
and i get a lift
when i look at them.

i saw the end of a long hall
and at the end were two doors,
both of them marked death.
one door was large
and the other was small.
having chosen the smaller door,
i entered and found golden streets
and complete happiness forever.

i saw many people
passing through the large door,
only to find themselves where they were before,
in the midst of their sins.
maybe i entered the large door once,
and maybe i have seen hell,
but that will never matter
for i have chosen well
in choosing the pathway
that led me to heaven.

A Man Called Peter

This play tells of the life of Peter Marshall previous to his appointment as chaplain of the U.S. Senate. Peter was played by Jeff Wells and his wife was Ann Grieser. Others in the cast were: Sara Schrock, Mark Nafzoger, Ross Nofziger, Rick Rufenacht, Cindy Stamm, Jane Dominique, Jon Stotzer, Marcia Frey, Diane Amstutz, Greta Yoder, Mary Ann Benecke, Marlo Kauffman and Todd Rupp. Miss Yanosky as a first year director, as well as the entire play cast presented an outstanding show. David A. McDonel was production manager.

Football

The football team, after losing their first three games, came back to win four in a row showing the drive and determination of an ever-improving squad. Coach Riddle was proud of the fine team effort, as well as individual performance.

Jim Ebersole was tabbed first team defensive back, and Dave Bernath received honorable mention as an offensive back in the Northwest Ohio All-District football selections. Jim also was named All-State second team defensive back.

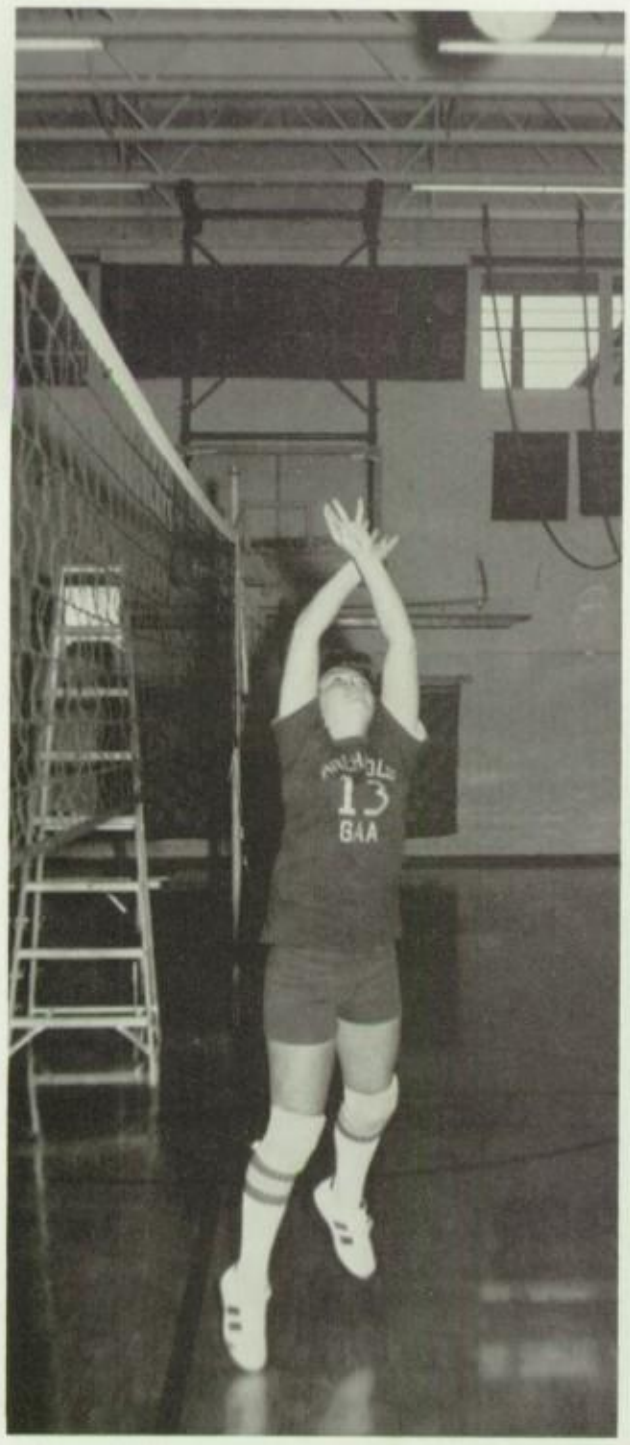
Cross Country

Coach Neff, who assumed the duties of coach of the Cross Country Team, found that the improvements were more promising than the record. Cal Rychener, who was only a Freshman, consistently finished first for the Archbold squad. Senior Andy Brodbeck, also added strength to the total team effort.

Cross Country Team: Coach Dan Neff, Lynn Beck, Cal Rychener, Andy Brodbeck, Todd Buehrer, Chuck Rowe, Brent Stockman, Jim LaNeve FRONT ROW: Denny Berry, Steve Walker, Lynn Fielitz, Ross Moraz, Dan Bettison

GAA Volleyball



The girls of AHS have shown Northwestern Ohio that they, too, can "put it together" as a volleyball team, and win. The varsity's season of 9 wins and only 2 losses was climaxed by winning a trophy as champion of the NWOAL Volleyball Tournament.

ABOVE: Andy drives in; Phil sets a pick.

Varsity Basketball

Coach Neff's first year for the Bluestreak Cagers was one of satisfaction. He brought a new type of ball to Archbold — controlled basketball — that both fans and players alike accepted. His coaching abilities and fine attitude of determination were rewarded in the end.

The Streaks ended the season with an 11-7 standard. Things looked rather bleak in the beginning for Coach Neff's Cagers, but the Streaks came out of the slump with a five game winning streak. They captured a 52-51 verdict over two-time rival Delta to take a piece of the NBL title along with PatrickHenry, Wauseon, and Delta.

Andy Brodbeck was tabbed first team in both the NBL and NWOAL leagues. Jim Ebersole and Phil Rupp made second team in the NWOAL, and Jim was also given Honorable Mention in the NBL.

The wrestling squad, under Coach Joe Furko, could not bring the record over 500, but nevertheless enthusiasm and team spirit prevailed. Jeff Schmucker in regular season was undefeated and Lowell Merillat only tied once to lead the team in state representation. The squad placed first in the Napoleon gold medals. Coach and fans can count on the experience gained by this year's relatively young squad as they anticipate another season.

Golf

The golf team under the direction of Coach Larry Lirot showed form by finishing the season at 11-5. The squad was led by three seniors with three or more years of experience. They were Andy Brodbeck, Jim Lugbill and Craig Spotts.

Track

The Archbold track team only won one dual meet, and defeated Patrick Henry in a three-way meet for the 1974 season. Coach Randy Riddle believed it a year of building for next year, 12 of 15 lettermen will be returning. The relay foursome of John Meyer, Terry Yoder, Gary Stoltz, and Dave Bernath have the new school record of 3:39.55.

Baseball

Coach Bill Rufenacht had a tough time getting things cracking with the Archbold baseball team. The highlight of the season was a setback in Patrick Henry's undefeated season costing them an undisputed NBL title, which they now have to share with Evergreen. The baseball team finished the season with a 5-10 slate. Tom Crossgrove was chosen most valuable player and Bob Liechty was selected the most improved.

Music

there are those of us
who can't keep quiet
when we're sad.
we've gotta tell somebody,
tell everybody,
tell nobody.
and when we're happy
we can't keep it inside
we've gotta let it out,
we've gotta sing
and that's why
there's music.

1973 Marching Band

Under the direction of Thomas Ehrman, the 1973 Bluestreak Marching Band supported The Blue Machine by performing seven times. The band intrigued the fans by their stirring performances. A great contribution to school spirit was made by the '73 marching band. Mr. Ehrman was very pleased with the whole brass section, and he noted that the trombone section was outstanding.

A Cappella Choir

The A Cappella and Mixed Choirs, under the direction of David A. McDonal, sang their hearts out. Both choirs will remember the fun times and hard work they put in during 5th and 6th periods. The A Cappella Choir impressed southwestern Ohio on the spring tour, while the Mixed Choir made The Follies a success.

"Follies Extraordinaire"

The Archbold Choirs climaxed the year by performing the "Follies Extraordinaire" May 23 and 24, 1974. The talent show consisted of soloists, group acts, and three previous musical choruses.

Gary's broke again!

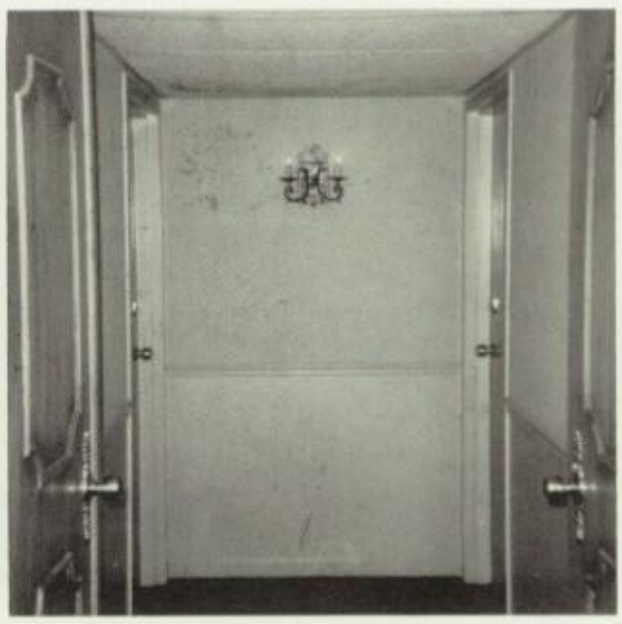
Group Highlights

Choir Tour

In March, 1974, the A cappella choir members packed their bags and toured southern Ohio. Mr. David A. McDonel and the choir were greeted with standing ovations and hospitality throughout the tour. Choir members will never forget the bologna sandwiches in Delphos, the locker rooms in Camden, the students of Wilmington, the motel, and the mansions of Indian Hill. After four long days of bus rides, the students were happy to see Archbold.



Band Rates Superior

"It was a sincere pleasure to hear you perform . . . you have been taught well."

The Symphonic Band received 4 superior ratings at State Band Contest which was held at Bowling Green, Ohio on April 27.
